BROKER GUILTY, JURORS FIND

Rosenberger, Sentenced On Two Counts, Gives Notice Of Appeal From Conviction

The county Grand Jury's indictment of J. A. Rosenberger, San Francisco broker, charging violation of the state corporate securities act in two counts, was sustained by a jury in Superior Court Wednesday afternoon when the defendant was found guilty as charged after deliberations lasting only thirty minutes.

Waiving time for passing sentence, the defendant was ordered by Judge George H. Thompson to be confined at San Quentin prison for the term prescribed by law (one to five years) on each count, with provision that the terms may run concurrently.

Defense counsel Bertram H. Ross served notice of his intention to appeal. The court took the matter of bail under advisement.

Thus the case will go for a second time to the Third District Court of Appeals at Sacramento.

The defendant was indicted, with J. J. Murphy, on charges of violating section six of the corporate securities act, which concerns dealing in stocks for which he held no permit to deal from the state corporation commissioner. The charge against Murphy was subsequently dismissed.

It was alleged the defendant had engaged in a stock transaction with Leo and Kathleen Flynn, of Georgetown, in which they were persuaded to exchange Bank of America stock for stock in an Oklahoma oil concern.

Annual Church Bazaar Held

Program Wednesday Evening Follows Supper; Booths Offer Attractive Gifts

The annual bazaar of the Federated Church was held Wednesday afternoon and evening at the church parlors, concluding with an entertainment program.

The event was arranged under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Martin Luther, who was assisted by a number of the ladies of the church in conducting various booths, serving in the dining room and kitchen, and in arranging and presenting the evening program.

A number of booths offered fancy work of various types, candies, canned foods and prepared foods for sale. During the afternoon refreshments were served and there was the usual large attendance at the supper.

In the evening, the following program, arranged by Mrs. Robert Carpenter, was presented:

Plano selection by Mrs. Bert Pierroz; selection by the Placerville Grammar school harmonica band under the direction of Miss Laura Ball; reading, Mrs. Jessie Maynard, "First Ride on a Pullman"; vocal selection, Miss Muriel Hermle; and specialties by members of Snowline CCC camp.

The program closed with the play, "Packing the Missionary Barrel," with a cast including Mrs. Annie Jaeger, Mrs. Martin Luther, Mrs. George Luse, Mrs. C. H. Hurlle, Mrs. R. C. Clothier, Mrs. Thomas Maul, Mrs. Merle Thomas, Mrs. William Liddicoat, Miss Alice Brown and Grace Winder.

SKIERS MEET TONIGHT TO ADVANCE PLANS FOR SEASON

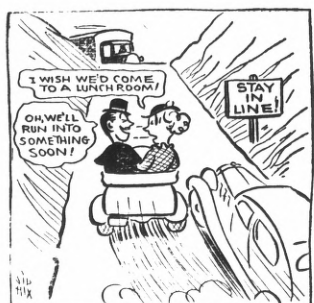

Placerville Ski Club members will hold an "irregular" meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight (Thursday) at the Superior Court room.

The meeting is irregular in that the regular meetings of the club fall on the second and fourth Thursday evenings of each month. However, the second Thursday of the present month was a holiday and the fourth Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, so the club is holding only one meeting for November, and that one tonight.

Assistant Forester A. N. Webber and Junior Forester Bert Parsons were in the Henry's Diggings section on Thursday.

DAFFY DRIVERS

BY NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL

What peculiar mental processes go on in the minds of those c-r-r-a-z-y motorists who pass other cars on hills or curves? What supreme optimists they must be! They seem to feel that a kindly providence will protect them and that they will have time to swing back into line in case a car suddenly swerves into view on top of the hill or comes swinging around the bend. Yet under the stern law of averages, death awaits a certain number of these chance-takers. What goofs these mortals be!

Opposed Student Body's Raid "Enemy" Campuses As Day Of Battle Approaches

STANFORD UNIVERSITY (AP)—Two huge C's, one in yellow paint and the other burned on a dormitory lawn, decorated the Stanford campus today as student hostilities preceding the University of California-Stanford football game on Saturday got under way in earnest.

At the California campus, Berkeley, campus police reported two girls, whom they identified as Stanford co-eds, painted a red "S" on the Campanile plaza. A big "S" was burned in the lawn near the western entrance to the campus.

Two bands of young men, presumably California students, raided the Stanford campus early today after two previous "false alarms" brought hundreds of Stanford freshmen out of their beds to answer raid calls.

A six foot yellow "C" was painted on the sidewalk in front of the University administration building. A 15-foot "C" was burned in lawn in front of Encinal Hall dormitory.

COUNTY BASKETBALLERS TO LAUNCH PLANS TONIGHT

The first step in the formation of the El Dorado County basketball league for the sixth consecutive year will be discussed at a meeting to be held at the high school tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 o'clock.

All clubs or organizations intending to enter teams in the league are urged by Coach L. A. Brown, president of the league to have a representative present at the meeting.

The league will enter upon its sixth year with the El Dorado County high school Cougars defending champions. In the five years of league competition the Native Sons were winners in the first year. The American Legion repeated for the next three years, and the high school last year.

Dillinger's Condition "Rather Serious"

The condition of H. E. Dillinger, who was removed to Placerville Sanatorium Monday for treatment of an infection in his finger, was described by Dr. W. A. Reckers Thursday noon as being "rather serious."

Mr. Dillinger is not receiving visitors, other than the immediate family. "He got a little infection in his finger and it spread to his arm," Dr. Reckers reported.

"No, I wouldn't say his condition is critical, but it is rather serious."

City Attorney and Mrs. Maul left Thursday for San Francisco where Mr. Maul has legal business on Friday. They will also see the California-Stanford football game at Palo Alto on Saturday.

CHURCHES MARK THANKSGIVING

Union Service Planned For Next Thursday Morning; Rev. Smales To Speak

Union church services marking Thanksgiving Day will be held at ten o'clock next Thursday morning at the El Dorado County Federated Church.

The Rev. C. P. Smales, pastor of the Placerville Church of the Nazarene, will be the Thanksgiving speaker and an invitation is extended to all interested friends to attend.

Program for the service is being arranged by Rev. Smales and Rev. Harold G. Morehouse, pastor of the Federated Church. It is planned that the service will be concluded before eleven o'clock.

Quoting from the 105th Psalm, verse one and two: "O give thanks unto the Lord; call upon His name; make known His deeds among the people. Sing unto Him; sing psalms unto Him; talk ye of all His wondrous works," Rev. Smales declares that there are few things in which most of us are as far behind as we are behind in our thanksgiving.

"We need to be much on our guard against ingratitude, and much alive to gratitude and praise," the pastor said.

"In few things is our Lord so magnified in the minds of men as when His people, in a spirit of spontaneous praise and thanksgiving, make known His deeds among those about us."

"Fault-finding is not a fruit of the Spirit. It is when our hearts are filled with praise and thanksgiving to God, that we are in condition to receive of Him those things He is so concerned to give us."

Award List Is Being Checked

Fair Premiums Must Be Okehed By Supervisors And State Finance Department

Following a meeting of the El Dorado County Fair directors at Hotel Raffles on Wednesday evening, Dr. L. J. Anderson, secretary-manager of the fair, and District Attorney Henry S. Lyon went to Sacramento Thursday afternoon to submit a portion of the premium list to the state department of finance.

George E. Faugsted, chairman of the fair board, said the rechecking of the premium list is being completed and that the list must be submitted to the Board of Supervisors for their approval, and will then go to the state department of finance for auditing and approval, after which the premiums will be presented.

Diamond Girl Scouts To Visit San Francisco

The Girl Scout Senior Patrol of Diamond Springs held their card party last Monday evening and wish to thank those who attended and also those who gave the prizes which were awarded. Says a report by the secretary, Mary Edna Henderson.

Some of the girls have planned to go to San Francisco this week-end with our captain and lieutenant, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Newman, the secretary continues. We also hope that Marguerite Buys, treasurer, is improving from her illness. Mary Jane Newman has moved to Placerville but will continue to attend the Girl Scout meetings in Diamond.

Schoolmates Reunited At Diamond Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Robin Pyke, of Vallejo, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Owens, of Oroville, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shell, at Diamond Springs.

Mr. Pyke and Mrs. Shell were schoolmates and had not seen each other since 1903. Needless to say, the reunion was a happy and pleasant one. Mr. Pyke has been employed in the navy yard at Vallejo since 1918.

It was the first trip of the Pykes to this county and aside from the highway having several crooks too many in it, they report they enjoyed the visit.

OBSERVANCE AT SEA — "I hope there will never be another war," said General John J. Pershing, American Expeditionary Commander in the World War, as he returned from France, recently. He is shown, left, at Armistice Day observance aboard the Washington, at sea. With him are Captain Giles Stedman, ship's commander, and Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois.

SENATE "AID TO BUSINESS BLOC" BREAKS THROUGH ANTI-LYNCHING FILIBUSTER

Senators Borah, Harrison And Bailey Join In Debate On Necessity Of Encouragement Of Trade Expansion As Illness Keeps President Roosevelt In Bed Third Day

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Congressional demands for immediate aid to business broke through a senate filibuster against the anti-lynch bill again today coincident with claims that a senate majority favored immediate repeal of the undistributed profits tax.

Sen. William E. Borah, R., Ida., Sen. Pat Harrison, D., Miss., chairman of the finance committee, and Sen. Josiah W. Bailey, D., N. C., joined in debate on the necessity for encouragement of business expansion as Bailey resumed the obstructionist oratory directed at the anti-lynching measure.

Bailey declared that the exigencies of the situation were such that he favored immediate repeal of the profits tax if it meant acceptance of a sales tax on manufactured goods or a broadening of the income tax base. At the same time, he emphasized he did not agree that such measures would be necessary.

TWO WOMEN DRAGGED TO DEATH UNDER WHEELS OF VALLEY TRAIN

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—Two women were killed and two men had narrow escapes when the four were trapped by a Sacramento Northern passenger train on a long railroad trestle near North Sacramento last night.

The dead were Mrs. Flora Simpson, 39, and her cousin, Miss Rosie Watts, 29, both of Verdigris, Oklahoma.

Oroville Simpson, 39, husband of one of the victims, escaped by leaping 15 feet to the ground. Earl Morris, 30, walking some distance ahead of the others, reached safety by racing to the end of the trestle.

Sheriff's deputies said Simpson told them all members of the party heard the oncoming train but the women apparently became excited and failed to jump. The train, bound for Marysville and Chico, dragged the bodies more than 100 yards.

The Simpsons, Miss Watts and Morris came here two days ago from the Marysville section, sheriff's deputies reported. They left Oklahoma early this year to work in California crop harvests.

Camino Men Attending Farm Bureau Meet

John Larsen, director of the Camino Farm Center, and V. H. Hamilton, well known Farm Bureau member of Blair's District, left Wednesday for Modesto to attend the closing sessions of the annual meeting of the California Farm Bureau Federation.

At the invitation of those in charge, Mrs. McCumsey, a member of Fallen Leaf Chapter, No. 90, O. E. S., of Placerville, attended the meeting of Fort Sutter and had the pleasure of presenting to her grand niece on behalf of the chapter her past matron's pin.

WINTER HITS MID-WEST

Five-Inch Snowfall, Below Normal Temperature Reported In Plains States

CHICAGO, (AP)—The winter's first general snow fell from the Rocky Mountains to Michigan today and sub-normal temperatures prevailed over almost all of the United States.

Snowfalls as heavy as five inches were recorded in the wheat growing states and growers hailed them as a boon to winter wheat.

Cheyenne, Wyo., reported five inches of snow and the low temperature early today was 4 degrees above zero.

Below freezing temperatures were recorded throughout the middlewest and even Thomasville, Ga., on the Florida-Georgia line, had a 32 degree reading.

Des Moines, Ia., reported two inches of snow and snow ranging from 1 to 2 inches fell in Charles City, Ia., Omaha, Neb., Sioux City, Ia., Topeka, Kan., Kansas City, Mo., Minneapolis, Minn., Springfield, Minn., and Huron, S. D.

Most of the territory between the Rockies and Michigan got at least a light snowfall.

California escaped the cold wave, Lloyd said. The temperature in Los Angeles was 56, three above normal; San Diego had 58, also three above normal. San Francisco reported a 50 degree reading, and Sacramento had a low of 46.

Other low temperatures were Devil's Lake, N. D., 4; Sheridan, Wyo., 6; Moorhead, Minn., and North Platte, N. D., 10; Huron, S. D., 12; Duluth, Minn., and Denver, Colo., 14.

Rain Totals 5.03 Inches

Storm Which Began Armistice Day Continues Intermittently Through Week; Snow On Summit

The Armistice Day storm blanketed El Dorado county with rains in the lowlands and snows in the higher reaches, leaving seven inches of the billowy white in Lake Valley, sixteen inches on the Echo Summit, ten inches at Strawberry and a snowline at the 34-mile stone.

The storm continued intermittently through the week leaving a total of 3.18 inches of rain in Placerville and raising the total for the season to 5.03 inches up to Wednesday afternoon.

At that time, according to Eldorado Forest, there were twelve inches of snow on the Echo summit and about four inches at Camp Sacramento, with the snowline at Twin Bridges.

Twin Lakes reported to the Pacific Gas & Electric Company a depth of nine inches of new snow for twelve hours ending at 5 o'clock Wednesday and a total depth of fifteen inches.

The storm was the answer to the "hopes" of stockmen who expect that, barring a freeze, the range grasses will be started.

The December meeting of the Smith Flat Parent-Teacher Association will be on Friday evening, December 10, and will be in the nature of a "jinx" Christmas Party.

Mrs. Grace Goldman, president, called attention to the whist party which will be held on December 7.

HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

A Burning Question

How to heat our homes with economy is an important study for the thrifty housewife who has no "money to burn." There are several factors which should be given attention. First there is the matter of having more fire than necessary when the weather is mild. Do not start a fire in the furnace too early in the autumn nor keep the furnace going too late in the spring. Have a fire in the stove, or fireplace for a few hours in the morning and evening.

Before cold weather comes, see that the house is weather tight. Do not try to heat all outdoors. Pack the cracks around doors and windows with a felt weather stripping or wool laths. See that the cellar has no holes which admit air. Use double windows and doors if necessary. There is a layer of air between the two windows or doors which acts as an insulation to shut out the cold.

A cellar is a protection against cold floors. If there is no cellar, have a double floor with plaster, wall board or insulating paper between them. Inspect your basement windows to see if they admit cold air. Look into your attic. Dead air in the attic will prevent the loss of heat. Do not let a current of air through the attic drain off heat from the house.

To lock the windows when closed, to draw the curtains on a cold night and to close the draft of the fireplace will all help to conserve the heat of the rooms. When the weather is cold, the rush of outdoor air into warm rooms is greater than in mild weather and one can have good ventilation with smaller openings and in a shorter time.

To get the heat into the living rooms and not waste it in the basement, cover the warm air ducts or steam or hot water pipes with insulating paper.

Study your furnace to be certain that you are operating it efficiently. If your local dealer cannot explain it to you, write to the manufacturer for suggestions. Most makers of heating systems have an efficiency engineer for this purpose. There is a difference in the type and size of fuel. Small coal burns quickly and makes a hot fire, but soon turns to ashes and packs on the grate, shutting off the draft. Large coal may require a hot fire to keep it burning. Learn what size is most economical for your furnace, the size of your rooms and the weather. Know how to make the fire hot when you need it so, how to shut it down, how to pack and hold it during the middle of the day and over night.

Harden yourself to endure a moderately low but even temperature in the home; heat fewer rooms; shut off the bedroom heat at night and cover the radiator or register. Hang a heavy curtain across a hallway door or at the foot of the stairs to keep living-rooms comfortable and others with merely the chill off.

Gratitude

"Some have meat, and canna eat; And some wad eat that want it; But we have meat and we can eat And sae the Lord be thankit."

Some have famine, and we have bumper crops. Some have war, and we have peace. Some have slavery, and we have freedom. Some have sickness, and we have health. So we could go on indefinitely, appreciating our homes, our children, our education, our books, magazines, and newspapers, our neighborly association, religious liberty and a thousand and one precious possessions which we usually accept as a matter of course, with never a thankful look upward to the Giver of all gifts. Sometimes, alas, with all this bounty, we go about grudgingly, looking down our noses and complaining because our cup does not run over more and more and more.

Gratitude is a virtue worth cultivating, for its own sake, even if it were not a debt due to the great Beneficence. Grief exhausts; fear paralyzes; anxiety wears; anger poisons; jealousy unbalances the mind—but gratitude sweetens and enriches life. It is like the sunshine which makes the soul bloom and become gracious.

We have garnered in the fullness of earth and can now sit by our cozy fire-sides and congratulate ourselves on the comfort which is ours. This is a good time to take an inventory of our blessings. We will be amazed at the long list of them; and if gratitude does not well up in our hearts, we are not human. And when we have made this list, let us nail it to the wall of our homes that we may keep grateful.

Gloves

The shops are showing the usual black or white kid gloves with no stitching on the back or with stitching of the same or a contrasting color. Gloves in colors are also at hand, ready for your hands. They come in rosy red, turquoise blue, canary yellow, olive green or pale gray. Evening gloves may be elbow length, to go with the short sleeves, and may be trimmed in braid, embroidered, tucked with flat tucks, or decorated with cutouts, insets, buttons or even rhinestones.

Materials for gloves may be kid-skin, suede or other leather or fur. Seal-skin, mink, silver fox and Persian lamb gloves are covered with fur on the back but have the palms of suede or velvet.

Turkey

Turkey for a fall gala meal dates back to colonial days when turkeys ran wild and could be had for the catching. They are at their best in the fall—large, plump and full of fine meat.

When buying a turkey, see that it has plenty of flesh on its back and hips and that the breast bone and spurs are not too hard and horny, but somewhat pliable. A young turkey has more tender meat. A fat turkey will insure a better flavor. To keep the meat moist and juicy cook it long and slowly in a tightly covered roaster, with a little hot water in the bottom to furnish steam.

Mrs. Solomon Says:

A family feast does not depend upon having turkey nor chicken. Better is hamburger, meat loaf, a soup bone or a rabbit stew—where love is—than "turkey and fixins" and hatred therewith. The big family, with a small purse, can have lots of jollity with a simple meal and a healthy appetite.

Housewifery

A few drops of glycerine added to the suds from which the children blow soap bubbles will make the bubbles tougher and more sparkling.

Better than scraping burned toast or cake with a knife is to rub off the burned part with a coarse grater. This is less likely to break the crisp material.

Stuffing for Roast

To one quart of bread or cracker crumbs, add one chopped onion, a sprinkling of pepper, two tablespoons of fat, a teaspoon each of salt and sage and a half cup of hot water. Mix well.

For variety one may use oysters or sausage or may add to the seasonings: thyme, marjoram, parsley, pimento, mango, nuts, nutmeg, raisins, chopped apple or celery and leaves.

Bird Houses

Birds do not like new houses. There is something about the gleam of them which frightens the birds. Bird houses, set out in the fall, will become sufficiently weathered by spring to suit the feathered tenants. Wrens are especially fussy about avoiding new houses.

Cranberry Jelly

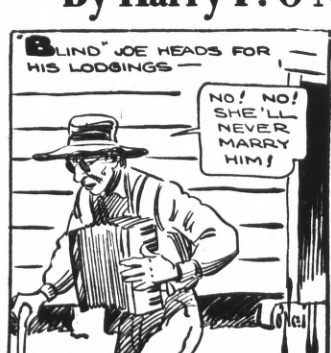

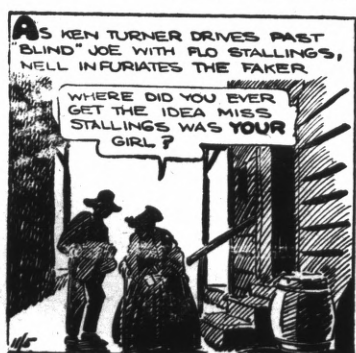

Boil until tender, four cups of cranberries with two cups of water. Run through a sieve, add two cups of sugar and boil about five minutes.

Sun-Maid has raised its advance payments on highest grade raisins to $65 per ton.

SCOUTS AT DIAMOND REPORT COURT OF HONOR

By JAMES HENDERSON
Troop Scribe

Thursday, Nov. 4, the Boy Scouts at Diamond held their Court of Honor. The scribe is a little behind time, but it's better late than never.

Mr. W. T. Henderson presided, with Mr. C. G. Price, Mr. C. S. Allen, Mr. R. Gust, Sam Harris, Mr. E. W. Zueger and Carl Fossette sitting at the table. The boys who passed their tests were Harlan Hall, star; Bill Liddicoet, Donald Way, Harry De Wolf, Elbert Bococchini, Bill Fisher and James Henderson, first class; Dick Cribbs, Sidney Ward and Allen and Dick Ybright, second class; Royal Bachman, tenderfoot. Badges were also presented to the mothers of these boys.

Mr. Doe wrote a piece of poetry and mailed it to me while I was in the Sanatorium. At that time I thought he was becoming a poet, but when I saw him picking out the keys Thursday, decided he was making a lyric for the poem and was becoming a song writer. Time alone will tell.

After our Court of Honor, ice cream and cake were served. These refreshments were furnished by the Parent-Teacher Association. We wish to thank them for their generosity and especially those who were in the refreshment committee.

Last Thursday the boys picked out the merit badges they are going to work on. Although they were not the easiest, the boys hope to become life Scouts by July first.

RESCUE

The last regular meeting of the Penny Social Club was held at the home of Mrs. Lena Engesser on November 3 with a fair attendance. Tea, cookies, cake and applesauce were served as refreshments.

The regular meeting of United Rescue League was held on Tuesday. The members were well-pleased with the number of ribbons received by members in the booth at the fair and thanked the members who had worked so hard to decorate and take care of the booth.

Regular meeting of Rescue Farm Center was held on Friday night. They also voted thanks to their members who had worked so faithfully on their fair exhibit.

Rescue has reason to feel rather proud for such a small community as our three organizations, the Up and Coming 4-H Club, Rescue Grange and Rescue Farm Center all had very pretty booths and a large exhibit of food products, all home-grown, in each booth.

We are very sorry to learn that Mrs. Emma Gordon is still very seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Fisk.

The Rescue Union Sunday School held a Thanksgiving program on Sunday at Green Valley schoolhouse. Rev. Holsinger, of Carmichael, was present. A picnic lunch was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. A. E. Trumbley went to Stockton Monday for a few days' visit with relatives there.

Friends in this community were saddened to learn of the passing of Mrs. Elizabeth Rust at the Placerville Sanatorium Sunday morning. Mrs. Rust was born and raised in Deer Valley and was well known and highly esteemed by all who knew her. She was a sister of J. W. Fleming, of Rescue, Arthur Fleming, of Auburn, Mrs. Aggie Etzel, of Dixon, and Mrs. Emily Burston, of Seattle. Mrs. Burston had been with her for some time past. The community extends sincere sympathy to her husband, William Rust, and other relatives. Funeral services were conducted from Memory Chapel at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Rev. C. W. Null officiated, and interment was at Union Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pelton, of San Leandro, spent the week-end at the George Wing ranch and the following spent Sunday there also. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fehnmann, of Placerville; Mr. and Mrs. George Wentz, of Sacramento; and Mr. and Mrs. Halley Wing and children, of Folsom, and Mr. Weisback, of Auburn.

Mr. Charles Snyder, who was found drowned in a flume near Penryn, was laid to rest at Coloma on Friday. Mr. Snyder had resided on the Litten-MacDonald ranch for some time past. Several letters have been received by friends from Arnold Dixon, who is stationed at Fort Mills, Corugador, P. I. He is serving in Battery C, 59th Artillery. He reports that he likes the work and is in fine health, but would like to hear from old friends and home.

Feeling that a few words of thanks and appreciation are due, the United Rescue Grange members are taking this means of thanking the Board of Supervisors, especially Mr. Heuser, of the third district, the water company, the Missouri Flat Community Center and Mr. Roy Marks for suggesting and sponsoring the work and improvement done on the road and intersection in front of the Missouri Flat school. This improvement has been needed for some years, because of the narrowness of the road. We feel that when a wonderful improvement such as this has been done, that we should let those responsible for it know that the people of the district do appreciate it. We never fail to censure our Supervisors when the roads are bad, why not be just as ready to praise them when they do make such an improvement.

(Signed) United Rescue Grange.

LOTUS

Our old friend and school mate, Chas. Snyder, who was found dead near Penryn a week ago last Friday, was laid to rest in the Coloma Cemetery Friday afternoon by the side of his uncle and aunt. His funeral was held in Memory Chapel in Placerville. The Rev. Bortoff preached a very touching sermon and also at the grave in Coloma. Charlie lost his pet dog some few months ago—strayed away or was stolen—and he was looking for it when death overtook him. He had been a resident of Rescue for the past year or more and was looked after by Mrs. Julia MacDonald up to the time of his death.

Since our last items in the Mountain Democrat the weather has changed considerably with cloudy days and light rains and no frosts; all of which is in every way a help to the stockmen and farmers, giving the farmer fair weather to plow and sow seed for a good crop of hay in the spring.

Quail season opened in our county Monday and will remain open until the last day of December, giving the sportsmen some six weeks to kill the birds. The limit this season is ten quail a day instead of twelve as last season. The birds are not so plentiful in and around Lotus and seem to be very wild.

Miss Ethel Lawyer came down from Uncle Tom's resort Tuesday evening last. She brought down Axel Kilander who remained here while Ethel returned to Uncle Tom's. Axel has spent over five months at Uncle Tom's, going up on the 6th of June with Mr. and Mrs. Reaside and returning on November 9th. He surely enjoyed his long stay in the mountains.

Frank Cass, a resident of Clovis, in Fresno county, was a Lotus caller on Monday. Mr. Cass has been fixing up his property interests in Placerville the past few months and drove over to visit with relatives and friends and look at our town.

Our town had a number of visitors the past week. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and family of Folsom spent a few hours visiting with Fred Castillo. Mrs. Douglas being a sister of Fred. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Otto Farley of Sacramento were in our town looking up work for the company he represents in Sacramento. They went from here to Auburn to visit with Mrs. Ed. Ames a sister of Mrs. Farley.

W. H. Hall of Coloma, and Gilbert Chisholm, superintendent of the Poor Mine in the Kelsey district, were attending to business matters in our town Saturday afternoon.

Charlie Rasmussen has just finished cutting and burning up brush from the fence on the Rasmussen Bros. ranch here the past week. This adds another year to his record for pruning this hedge fence.

We may be late once in a while but we always manage to get the material in some time or other. This time we slipped up on the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Department of Agriculture, in case you missed reading it.

The Department affects this county probably more than any other branch of the government (and that includes the Post Office Department). To mention just a few more services that are active here we have first, and most important, the Forestry Service; next, though not especially in order of their importance, the Extension Bureau, the Division of Animal Husbandry, the Soil Conservation Service, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, the Food and Drug Administration, the Weather Bureau, and the Department of Home Economics (some of the above mentioned serve only indirectly)—all of these services are taken advantage of by the people of this county, as well as every other county in the nation, and well they might for they are indispensable. It is an efficient organization using skilled and trained men—may it continue its good work many times seventy-five.

ter to trial, the defense moved for dismissal of the charges and, upon being denied, appealed to the Third District Appellate Court for a writ of habeas corpus. The petition to the Appellate Court was denied.

The trial opened Tuesday morning with the selection of a jury completed by noon and presentation of the People's case was begun upon the taking up of court at the afternoon session. The People closed Tuesday afternoon and the defense did not present any testimony. A defense motion for a directed verdict of acquittal was denied.

Wednesday morning, the case for the People was re-opened to take the testimony of two witnesses. Attorney Robert E. Roberts gave the opening argument for the State and District Attorney Henry S. Lyon made the closing argument. Attorney Bertram H. Ross and associate argued for the defense.

Upon the taking up of court Wednesday afternoon, the court gave its instructions to the jury which retired at 3 o'clock and returned with a verdict of guilty at 3:30 o'clock.

The defendant waived time for passing sentence and the defense moved for an arrest of judgment. This was denied. The defense then moved a new trial. Motion was denied and sentence was passed.

Verbal notice of intention to appeal was given and the court granted a 48-hour stay of judgment to permit taking of a statement as required by law by the probation officer.

On the jury were Herbert L. Porter, foreman, and Alton B. Capps, Paralee Sheets, John Williamson, William Fisher, Henry Panning, Dale Dalton, William Griswald, W. E. Crow, Oscar L. Swingle, William H. Mayer and Ruby A. Wright.

"COUNTRY BOY" GIVEN EDGE IN PICTURE WORK

According to Henry Fonda, the movie star, country boys have a distinct niche in stage and screen. He told Bette Davis, opposite whom he plays in the Warner Brothers drama, "That Certain Woman," which is the Thursday-Friday Empire feature, that your typical country boy carries a certain stamp of the rustic with him to his grave.

"Many a stage director, playwright, film director, producer and other expert showmen has told me that this stamp of the rustic, the 'country-boy-at-heart' stuff, is valuable, particularly for romantic hero roles," Fonda explains. "Naturally, the city-stamped fellow has his place too. It just so happens that a larger number of characters an actor such as I might play, seem to fit the boy who can show his country breeding."

MINNEAPOLIS COLUMNIST ACCURATELY FORETELLS LABOR MURDER

By WALTER RUNDLE

United Press Staff Correspondent
MINNEAPOLIS, (UP) — Patrick J. Corcoran, a prominent northwest labor leader, was found slain today in strange fulfillment of a newspaper columnist's prophecy.

Ten days ago Cedric Adams' column of the Minneapolis Star carried this item:

"I met a very close friend of mine in the Loop last night (Nov. 8). He's given me scores of items in the past, some of them have been little scoops, too. And he's never been wrong. Here's one he dropped last night—you can take it for what it's worth: A prominent labor leader in Minneapolis will be 'taken for a ride' within two weeks."

The information, Adams said, came from an unidentified labor leader.

More Federal Jails To Be Asked Of Congress

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP)—Once upon a time there was a girl, and a boy, and a knock-kneed horse.

The boy said to the girl: "I love you. Will you marry me?"

The girl said to the boy: "I love you, too."

They were married.

So now enter the horse and the girl's father.

The father, "Big Jim" Parsons, prominent California racing man, whose silks are known to all, objected to having his daughter, Daisy, marry a jockey. The fact that the jockey was Harry Richards, America's greatest money rider, did not soften the blow.

To "Big Jim" jockeys were little men whom he employed to work for him. They were not invited guests at his dinner table. Too, Daisy was his only girl. And she was an especial sort of girl. She held one of the few licenses as a horse trainer ever granted to women in this country. She got up early, and watched the workouts with "Big Jim." To him her opinion of a horse carried the most weight.

"Big Jim" raised hell when he heard that Daisy had eloped with Harry Richards. He didn't know anything about the courtship because "daisies never tell." He stormed, fumed, fretted, and sent wires.

While "Big Jim" was throwing his California fit, Daisy and Harry were traveling through the east, billing and cooing in the finest lovebird manner. But they didn't forget Father Parsons. Daisy loved him and Harry figured that he might as well be on the right side of his father-in-law.

Then they hit upon an idea. They would buy him a horse and send it to him as a sort of four-legged peace pipe. That was before Harry, of the soft-yet-iron hands, had ridden Pompon in the Derby at Belmont, and whipped Rosemont home in the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap. So Harry and Daisy decided on a cheap horse in the Saratoga sales.

They got one for $200 dollars. They were the only bidders. He had four legs, a mane, and a switchy tail, but that was about all he had in the way of thoroughbred trademarks. In other words High Vote was a pretty sorry looking nag. He was hurt. He was tired. But he was a horse, and he fitted their pocketbook. And he looked like a good peace offering, among persons who speak only the equine language.

Father Parsons snorted when he first glimpsed High Vote. Then he felt sorry for the old knock-kneed nag and told his trainer to give him a rest. A long rest.

This brings us almost to the end of our story of the girl and the boy and the knock-kneed horse.

As you know, the boy and the girl are happy, and let me tell you what happened to the knock-kneed horse.

He has won three important races in a row, beating on one occasion a colt that cost $10,000.

Right now he is one of the best sprinters on the Pacific Coast. His coat is rich and soft, his belly nicely rounded, and he doesn't know that he only cost $200.

Yesterday, at Tanforan, I sat with Daisy and Harry and "Big Jim" Parsons. "Big Jim" loved his daughter, as always. He is mighty proud of the knock-kneed horse. But you should hear the ring in his voice when he says:

"I want you to meet my son-in-law."

They're living happily ever after.
